

FALL TOURNEY 2010

October 8 - 9

TMT Anglers

Alabama River

- Area known as Miller's Ferry
- Official name Bill Dannelly Reservoir
- 105 miles of some of the most natural river you will see (as natural as a dam river can be)
- 500 Miles of shoreline

River Oaks Landing B&B

- We are staying at what I believe is the nicest place in a 30 square mile area.
- Room Rates are $136.25 per room (two queen beds) per night. This includes breakfast AND dinner each night.
- Unfortunately we cannot make reservations until mid summer at the request of the owner.

The Area

- OK, we are driving into nowhere land. The closest gasoline is about a 15 minute drive.
- There are a couple of small grocery stores in Orrville but I suggest you buy everything you need and truck it in.
- We are near Orrville, AL which is on the north side of the river west of Selma.
- There are lots of ways to get there so we will discuss as we get closer.

Rules

- Five fish limit
- Launch – Shotgun start at safe daylight (should be 6:15ish)
- Weigh in 3:30 at the Corps of Engineers Launch up the road from the B&B.
- You are REQUIRED to have a post tournament debriefing with Lance. A big part of having this down there is to help me learn the water.
- You must stay in Miller's Ferry. No locking through.

Pointers

- This river can be mean. I suggest staying out of the unmarked Bogue Chitto creek with a fiberglass boat. We are launching there but near the marked area.
- All creeks are areas to be careful. Stickups are all over. You are fairly safe in an aluminum boat.
- The main river is fine and some of the larger creeks are fine but always be watching for floating logs, etc.

Post Note

- I will be staying at my trailer nearby. If anyone wants to stay Saturday night you are welcome to. I can't sleep many but it is better than driving home.
- There is always a chance of flood on the Alabama. If we see an event coming a week in advance (or whatever the backout rules are for reservations) then the backup plan will be Lake Jordan. We'll just get rooms at the Key West Inn on 231.
- At this point the plan avoids major football games. If they change schedules, not my fault. AU is away at Kentucky and Bama is open.
